The parties who defraud the public and ourselves by endeavoring to imitate our flour, do not imitate the flour, however. They imitate only sack and brand. "What a fair outside falsehood hath."

It is a risky business these people undertake. It is not noted on the sacks where the boxes flour is made. In the moon perhaps. If so the genuine flour has reached that delectable above.

IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

The Jury in the Elliott Murder Case Came in With the Above Verdict. After Much Delay.

Columbus, Ohio, July 28.—The long, anxiously waited for Elliott jury case is at an end. At 10:20 this morning the jury filed into the court room and announced that Wm. J. Elliott had been found guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of Albert C. Osborn on the 23d of February last. The verdict is no surprise, as the long wait of the twelve men in their room had given out the impression that there was some doubt as to the grade of the crime and that if there was not some disagreement the verdict would be as rendered, this morning.

Judge Pugh arrived at the court house about 9 o'clock, and as he had no advice that the jury was ready to report to him, he repaired to his private room to await their call. General Powell, Colonel Taylor and Captain Barger, counsel for the defense, arrived a few minutes before 10 o'clock. After a few minutes delay in the corridors, they entered the court room and took their accustomed positions in front of the judge's bench.

Just after them entered Judge Pugh, who, coming to the door, called out to Doorkeeper Wilson, who was busy in the room, presumably to have him prepare to resist the rush of the great mob out in the corridors.

The next instant Sheriff Custer, Deputies Ross and Carpenter entered and took positions over where the prisoner sits, thus adding new evidence that the jury was ready to come down.

A minute or two later Mrs. E. J. Elliott and children, Miss Maroney, her sister, and Mr. Maroney, her brother, came in.

At 10:19 Jailor Marvin Custer came through the closure passage way from the jail with the prisoner, W. J. Elliott, who wore a look of intense anxiety and appeared somewhat nervous.

While waiting for the jury to be brought in he held an earnest conversation with his attorneys. He was holding his youngest boy on his knee when the jury filed into the box to make known the seal that had been strapped upon his future life.

Judge Pugh entered and ascended to the bench at 10:20 and was closely followed by the jury.

The crowd in the corridor made a scramble to gain admission to the already packed room, and there was not breathing room scarcely when a couple of hundred more persons squeezed in.

All being ready, Judge Pugh directed Criminal Clerk Mitchell to call the roll, and this being done, Judge Pugh inquired if they had agreed upon a verdict, which brought out the response from Foreman Pegg: "We have."

Judge Pugh then asked that the verdict be handed up, which was done. Judge Pugh held the verdict in his left hand and drew the entry in the criminal docket.

As he handed the verdict to Clerk Mitchell to be read, he told the audience not to indulge in any demonstrations.

The suspense of the great crowd was intense while Clerk Mitchell read the preliminary lines of the verdict. When that point was reached where the verdict read: "We, the jury, etc., find the defendant, W. J. Elliott," Miss Nellie Maroney screamed out and fell back in her brother's arms in a faint, she evidently expected the next words would be "guilty of murder in the first degree."

Clerk Mitchell paused for a few seconds and then went on to read: "Not guilty of murder in the first degree, but do find him guilty of murder in the second degree."

When these words were spoken Elliott pulled his Grand Army button from the button-hole in the lappel of his coat and threw it victously at the jury. Instead of weakening, W. J. Elliott grew more revengeful and his face took on a look of wildest anger.

Mrs. Elliott did not shed a tear, but she probably did not realize at the time what the verdict meant. The children all began to cry when Miss Maroney fainted.

The scene was a most heart-rending one and brought tears to the eyes of Foreman Pegg, while the other members of the jury bowed their heads in mournful silence.

When the jury was polled and each in turn were asked if "the verdict just read was their verdict." Oland O. Siebert responded, "yes, sir," in a strong, firmer voice than any of the other jurors, thus indicating that he has stood from the first for murder in the second degree.

The jury have vowed that they will never disclose how they stood on any of the ballots and thus it will probably never be positively known who the dissenters were.

By the laws of Ohio murder in the second degree is punishable by life imprisonment, the court having no alternative in the matter.

Notice of motion for a new trial was made, and no sentence was not passed. The court fixed next Saturday as the time for hearing arguments on the motion for a new trial.

SLAUGHTER DAY AT DAYTON.

Five Fatalities, Including the Burning of Two Children in a Barn.

Dayton, Ohio, July 28.—Yesterday was slaughter day at Dayton. Edward Roily, a core maker, who has been suffering with dropsy, died suddenly on the street yesterday morning. The west bound Erie express, on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio branch, killed an unknown, genteel-looking woman near Enon, sixteen miles east of here yesterday. City Councilman George Meroherle's stable burned and two hours later the cremated bodies of two little boys were found in the ruins. August Young, aged five, and Frank Wenzel, aged four, were playing in the loft and set fire to the hay, and were suffocated and burned. While the fire was in progress their mothers became anxious, and soon the firemen found their charred bodies in the ruins of the stable.

Archibald Boyd, a veteran from the Soldiers' home, while drinking in a saloon, stabbed John Boyer in the abdomen, ripping him frightfully.

MADE MILLIONS.

But He is Now a Raving Maniac and Under Restraint.

New York, July 28.—Dr. Henry T. Helmbold, the famous buchuman, who is said to have made $10,000,000 from the sale of his patent medicines, was taken from his house at Long Branch last Friday to an insane asylum at Trenton, N. J. He is now in a straight jacket, a raving maniac. It is the fourth time within the last twenty years that the doctor's family has been compelled to place him under restraint. This will probably be the last, for competent physicians have pronounced his case hopeless. Last week the doctor made several attempts to injure his attendants and members of his family.

PROBABLY A CANARD.

A Sensational Story Concerning an Alleged Bloody Fight.

Chicago, July 28.—A story got out on the streets last night giving the particulars of an alleged prize fight for $5,000 a side. The battle is reported to have taken place in the third story of a building at an early hour in the morning. Ed. Gorman, of Columbus, Ohio, and Billy Hawkins, of St. Louis, were the supposed contestants. Gorman, the story goes, won after a hard and bloody battle, in the fifty-third round. Billy Murphy was referee. The whole affair is considered a canard.

MIRACULOUS CURES.

A Mecca for Thousands of Devoted Catholics.

Kankakee, Ill., July 28.—The little village of St. Ann, in this county, is the Mecca of thousands of Catholics annually who come here from all parts of the west to worship at the magic shrine of their patron saint. Yesterday 2,500 pilgrims walked through the dusty streets to the stone church wherein many miraculous cures are reported to have been effected.

SOCIALISTS DEFEATED.

All Other Parties Join to Down Them and They Succeed.

Berlin, July 28.—Herr Endeman, national liberal, has been elected to the reichstag from Cassel, he having received 10,582 votes as against 9,004 votes cast for Herr Pfankuch, socialist. Herr Endeman received the support of all parties except the socialists, while his opponent had the solid socialist vote.

They Did Not Spare the Hod.

Columbus, July 27.—At Jonesville, ten miles south of this city, last night, ten masked men met Mark Perry upon the street, and seized him, took him to a telegraph pole a mile away, and proceeded to give him twenty-five lashes with keen switches. Perry is a worthless, drunken young man who will not work, and who has been driven from this city by the marshal and dares not to return without going to work through fear of being clubbed away again. The work of whipping Perry was quietly done, and would have remained a secret had not he returned to that place and informed the citizens of what had occurred. Perry was twice invited to leave Jonesville but failed to do so. It is feared that he will again be whipped, and much more severely than at first.

Justice to an Indianapolis Drummer.

Greencastle, Ind., July 28.—Mr. G. E. Hicks, a commercial traveler, whose prosecution by the Humane society of this city will be recalled, desires to be set right with the readers of the Journal. He insists that the prosecution was a piece of spite work, and that leading citizens of Greencastle, as well as the liveryman of whom the horse was hired, have assured him that his use of the whip was not unnecessarily severe. Mr. Hicks stands high in the estimation of his friends, who desire that he should be set right in this matter.

Tax Collector Hanna a Defaulter.

Martinsville, Ind., July 28.—It became known today that Calvin Hanna, a young attorney, tax collector and insurance agent, of Linton, who left last Thursday for unknown parts, is a defaulter for about $100 of tax money he had collected.

BARBED WIRE COMBINE.

The Manufacturers Form a Trust and Advance the Royalty 200 Per Cent.

Chicago, July 28.—Yesterday the barbed wire manufacturers of the United States completed all details for a combine, and the result is the formation of a wire trust that will eclipse all other combines. The trust, or combine, will in the future be known as the Columbia Patent company, and their first move will be to advance the royalty on the manufacture of wire from $1 to $3 per ton, an advance of 200 per cent. on the present rates. The headquarters of the trust will be in Chicago. To nominal capital is $2,500,000. John Gates, the St. Louis wire manufacturer, who so persistently fought the Washburn monopoly for years, and even yet has suits pending in the United States courts, has joined hands in the new combine, and has been elected president of the new company.

BARRED FROM OHIO.

The Insurance Commissioner Refuses to License Companies.

Columbus, Ohio, July 28.—State Insurance Commissioner Kinder has refused to license a number of insurance companies because of their refusal to comply with the laws of the state, and they are debarred from doing business in Ohio. Among them are the Preferred Mutual Accident association, of New York, and the New York Accident Insurance company, of New York. The following companies were refused certificates of admission to this state: National Benevolent association, of Minneapolis; Bankers' and Traders' Accident association, of New York, and Connecticut Indemnity association, of Waterbury, Conn.

SO SAITH.

The Reported Engagement in Chili is Untrue.

Coquimbo, Chili, July 28.—The report that has been sent out to foreign countries about an engagement at Buenco in which the congressional troops were routed, is without foundation. There was no such engagement. The Junta have landed 4,000 men there, intending to make an advance upon the south. Since their landing they have not met the Balmacedists. In regard to the victory of the government troops at Vallenere, it has been greatly exaggerated. It has very little importance. As I have already cabled you, however, there is a general belief that a fight will take place in this vicinity within a short time.

BIG SUIT.

The Charleston and Cincinnati Railroad Sued for $7,345,000.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 28.—The Boston Safe Deposit and Trust company of Boston, Mass., filed in the United States court at Covington, Ky., yesterday, a suit against the Charleston and Cincinnati railroad for $7,345,000. In 1887 the railroad company executed a mortgage to the Boston Trust company on all its line of railroad between Charleston, S. C., and Ashland, Ky., at $25,000. The trust company now sets up a plea that the railroad company is insolvent and asks for the sale of its property to pay its claim.

MORE TROUBLE FEARED.

Sixty Convicts Were Taken to the Coal Mines Yesterday.

New York, July 28.—A special to the Sun from Knoxville, Tenn., says: "The public need not be surprised to hear of serious trouble at Coal Creek at any moment. Sixty convicts were taken there this (Monday) morning. The miners may look upon this action of the Tennessee Coal and Mining company as an open defiance and resent it accordingly. The general opinion, however, is that the miners will await the actions of the extension of the legislature."

AN UNPALATABLE DISH.

A Boiler Drops Down on a Family While at Breakfast.

Vicksburg, Miss., July 28.—A supplementary boiler in use by the Hill City mills exploded yesterday morning, mortally wounding the engineer and fireman. The boiler, weighing a ton, was blown to an immense height and fell through the roof of a two story residence to the ground floor, crashing through floors and beams and landed in the center of a table where the family were seated at breakfast. One person was slightly injured.

THE GEODIC SURVEY

Changes the Division Line in the Disputed Fishing Territory.

Ottawa, Ont., July 28.—Minister of Marine Tupper contends that according to the line laid down by the last geodic survey that part of the Bay of Fundy, in which the United States fishing boats were seized recently, is clearly in British waters. The report of the officer who made the seizure resolved the fisheries department yesterday afternoon.

A Sailor Drowned.

Toledo, July 28.—William White, aged 20, at eighteen years and employed as deck hand on the propeller St. Magnus, and a resident of Hamilton, Ont., was drowned at the foot of Magnolia street yesterday, at 12 o'clock, while bathing. The body was recovered and turned over to Coroner Konkel, who rendered a verdict of accidental drowning.

OUR INSANE.

Dr. Samuel E. Smith Talks About the State Insane Institutions.

Dr. Samuel E. Smith, the new superintendent of the eastern hospital for insane, near Richmond, the asylum where Allen county's patients go, was interviewed by an Indianapolis Sentinel reporter. He stated that there are 883 patients at the institution now and in the male department there are only seven spare beds. In order to accommodate new cases it will be necessary to send back to the counties old incurable cases. It was the intention of the legislature, when the erection of the three additional hospitals was authorized, to prevent the discharge of incurable lunatics. Then it was believed that three new hospitals would shelter all the insanes of the state for two generations. But the number of insane persons in the county poorhouses was underrated. The four institutions are almost crowded. The central hospital, near Indianapolis, has the power to return to the counties incurable cases at the discretion of the superintendent. Last winter a bill was defeated in the house giving the superintendents of the other hospitals the same power. However, lately, Attorney-General Smith gave an opinion which also relieves the new hospitals. Under the act authorizing the additional hospitals, Mr. Smith holds that the superintendents have the power to furlough harmless, incurable cases. Dr. Smith says that he does not intend to furlough any patient except to make room for new cases. As 25 per cent. of the patients admitted are cured, he thinks that it is better to send back to the county houses incurable persons than to confine there cases that might be cured if sent to the hospital.

The hospitals are the only places to keep insane persons, says Dr. Smith, and he hopes that the next legislature will provide for an additional building to the present institution. The Richmond hospital consists of eighteen cottages. A central building for mild cases—insane persons who are employed about the farm and workshop—could be erected with a capacity of 150 patients. The same plant that heats and lights the eighteen existing buildings would serve this new building without additional cost. There would be no additional expenses for supervision. Half a dozen attendents would take care of these patients. The additional state tax of 5 cents on the $100 which the last legislature levied is to be applied entirely to benevolent institutions. This will enable the next legislature to provide for the care of all the insane persons in the state.

A large percentage of insane persons are of foreign birth. There are a number of patients now in the Richmond asylum who were confined in the hospitals of Europe. When the immigration of paupers and idoits is effectually stopped the insane hospitals in this country will not become so crowded. The southern countries of Europe furnish few insane patients. It is in the cold countries that insanity prevails the most. The hospital farm at Richmond contains 307 acres. This year 645 bushels of wheat have been harvested. The farm produces all the vegetables and milk necessary for the hospital.

AN ARABIAN COLONY

To be Organized at Toledo—An Appeal for Help.

Toledo, July 28.—This city is to have an Arabian colony. Rev. Dr. Quigley announced at both services Sunday at St. Francis de Sales that an effort was being made to establish a colony composed of Arabians. He described the peculiar conditions under which these people live in their native country. A tax of $30 is imposed on each emigrant, so that the people being naturally very poor, they reach this country practically penniless.

There are now in Toledo about fifty Arabians, and as they are all Catholics, it is proposed to get them a clergyman who can speak the Arabian language. A subscription will be taken up at St. Francis de Sales next Sunday to aid the project.

FIFTY VICTIMS.

Sainte Maude Horror So Far Results in a Half Hundred Deaths.

Paris, July 28.—Interest in the Sainte Maude horror is increased by the fact that the official inquiry has up to this time failed to establish clearly the real cause of the collision. Seven more deaths have occurred, making fifty in all. The assistant station master at Vincennes, and the driver of the second engine have been arrested on the charge of having contributed by carelessness to the collision. The lady announced as being among the victims of the disaster was not the Marquese de Montalets. She was a Madame Blanchy, of Blanchet, New York.

Canadian Independence.

Quebec, July 28.—Premier Mercier will call the provincial legislature together in September and introduce a resolution in support of Canadian independence, as opposed to imperial federation.

JEWISH PERSECUTION.

Their Village Burned and Fourteen Persons Perish in the Flames.

Boston, July 28.—The Russian Jews who are detained at this port by the requirements of the new immigration law, say that the final act of persecution which drove them from Russia was the burning of their village, containing eighteen houses, near Veilia. A crowd of men came from Veilia in the night time and set the place afire. Fourteen Jews were burned to death and twenty others badly injured. To the surprise of the Russians, who were accustomed to see the Jews submit passively to all outrages, the inhabitants armed themselves with stones and sticks and pursued the Russians. In the fight which occurred, a youth, whose mother had been burned to death, killed three Russians with a crowbar. Officials from Veilia came to the scene and arrested this young man and several other Jews, who will probably be sent to Siberia.

CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

The Standard Mutual Life Stock Insurance Company in Trouble.

Philadelphia, July 28.—A bill in equity to the court of common pleas of Berks county, signed by Joseph A. Norris, Levi S. Cline, Charles Simon, George Collins, James Murphy, William F. Barr, Baltz & Bro., R. W. Bicking, J. W. Winter, William Pyle & Sons and E. A. Winter, policy holders of the Standard Mutual Live Stock insurance company, of Reading, which is to be filed at once in Berks county, makes the startling charge that that company was organized with fraudulent intent and has been carried on for purposes of fraud ever since. The Mutual company was started in 1886 and is now said to have outstanding policy holders, who reside principally in Philadelphia and the northern portions of New Jersey and Pennsylvania, to the amount of $600,000.

The company got into trouble about two years ago, and as a result of the filing of the bill in equity by Aaron B. Wood, the court of common pleas of Berks county appointed Peter W. Fisher receiver. William Righter Fisher was retained as attorney by the petitioners and other policy holders about a month ago. He says that during his investigation one of the reasons that made him suspect fraud was the discovery that one of the managers of the company had been dipping into graveyard insurance.

FREMONT WITHOUT WATER.

A Matter of $12,000 Causes the Supply to be Destroyed.

Toledo, Ohio, July 28.—Fremont is a city of 10,000 inhabitants in Northeastern Ohio and today is without water supply. At this season of the year the city's supply is derived principally from the river. The water privilege belongs to a man named D. June, under an old lease from the United States government, and he has been trying to sell this to the municipality for $12,000. There has been delay in closing the negotiations and in order to compel the city to accept his terms he has torn away a part of his dam, running the river dry. There is consequently no fire protection, families are suffering, and the factories and newspaper offices are compelled to shut down for want of power. The council has ordered the dam to be rebuilt, but it has not been complied with. Indignant citizens threaten to take the matter into their own hands, rebuild the dam, and maintain it by force if necessary. The damage to the business interests of the place is large.

ONLY FOR A DAY.

A Rumor that Russia and France Will Not Continue Long in Friendship.

London, July 28.—The correspondent of the Times at St. Petersburg telegraphs that the official journals do not like the enthusiasm which has been aroused by the visit of the French squadron to Cronstadt. He adds that it is reported that the czar is displeased with the manifestations made in favor of the republic, and that he ordered that no pleasure steamer was to be allowed to approach near the French war ships when he visited Admiral Gervais.

It is not believed in London that the visit of the French in Russia will exert a lasting effect on the friendly relations existing between the two nations. There are many who think that the czar will not assent to any alliance with the French republic. The same people profess to believe that it was only with the greatest difficulty that the czar was for a moment persuaded to abandon his known distrust in France.

EDITOR SANDS.

The Oldest Newspaper Man in the Country Surrenders to Death.

Baltimore, Md., July 28.—Samuel Sands, one of the oldest citizens of Baltimore, died today, aged ninety-three years. He has been in uninterrupted service as a printer, editor or publisher since his apprenticeship in 1811. Half a century ago he published the American Farmer, the first agricultural paper in the country. He also, at one time, published the Morning Chronicle, and in 1836 he bought out the Freeman's Banner, advocating the election of Gen. William Harrison. He was secretary of the Maryland State Agricultural society. Death was due to old age.

WAR IN CAMP.

The Daughters of American Revolution Fire Their Vice President.

Washington, July 28.—There is trouble among the ladies of the National Society of Daughters of American Revolution and it has resulted in the removal from office of Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, the authoress and vice president in charge of the organization of chapters. At a recent meeting the national board of management, among whose members are the wives of President Harrison, Justice Field, General Greely, ex-Minister Foster and Senator Cockerell, the following resolution was adopted unanimously:

Whereas, Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, vice president in charge of the organization of chapters of Daughters of American Revolution, has refused to recognize the authority of the national board of management, and to report her action to the same, and has forbidden the use of her name and threatened the board with legal proceedings, and has declared in writing that her relations with the board are ended, and has represented the board as being her appointees and subject to her direction, and has charged members of the board with being engaged in conspiring against her, and has persistently attempted to discredit the authority of the board with the members of the society. Now, therefore, the national board of management, believing that the best interests of the society demand her removal from office, do declare that Mrs. Flora Adams Darling is hereby removed from the office of vice-president in charge of the organizations of chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution and that said office is hereby declared vacant.

Mrs. Harrison was not present when the resolution was adopted. Yesterday the board issued a circular letter giving in detail the charges contained in the resolution.

BEHIND THE BARS.

A Young Merchant Who Gambles Comes to Grief.

Atlanta, Ga., July 28.—Stephen A. Ryan, the young Atlanta dry goods merchant, who failed recently for $2,000,000, is behind the prison bars. Judge Gober says he is in for contempt. The decision in the Ryan case was made this morning and Judge Gober held that Stephen A. Ryan has cash assets in his possession to the amount of $120,000, which should be handed over to his creditors. Ryan testified that he had always been a sport, had lost $1,600,000 on the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight, and had always gambled. This was to show where his money had gone. Ryan claims that he has turned over all the assets in his former custody. Judge Gober has ordered him sent to jail until he complies with the order of the court and turns over the money which was proven to be in his possession. The decision produced a profound sensation in the court room. Mr. Ryan flushed a little but he betrayed no other emotion when he was placed in hands of the sheriff.

Seal Fishers Complain Bitterly of the Way They are Handled.

Victoria, B. C., July 28.—The schooner Annie Paine returned from the north with 100 skins. The Paine was ordered to return to Victoria, making the third sealer now in port. The captain of the Harvin says that when boarded by the officers of the Bush they took guns and ammunition from the schooner, and then towed her to Cunalaska, where twenty-one of her crew were put on board the boat Alkali and kept on hard tack for two days, when the were turned over, together with the schooner, to the officers of Her Majesty's vessel, Nymphe, who ordered them to proceed to Victoria.

LOOK OUT FOR HALF DOLLARS.

A Clever Imitation of the '85 Issue Now in Circulation.

A young lad approached a street fruit vender this morning and offered a half-dollar coin in payment for some fruit. The dealer was about to give the customer forty-five cents change when it struck him that the coin was very light. He immediately placed it between his teeth and they sunk easily into the soft stuff the coin was made of. It was a counterfeit.

The coin bore the date 1856 and was a most perfect imitation of a well-worn, genuine coin of that date. It had the proper color and ring, and it was only by its extreme lightness that any suspicions could be aroused.

PARNELL MUST PAY

Mrs. O'Shea's Divorce Expenses or Go Into Bankruptcy.

London, July 28.—The registrar in bankruptcy holds that Mr. Parnell's objection to Captain O'Shea serving the order of bankruptcy on him upon the ground of his (Parnell's) non-domicile in England is untenable. It is still open to Mr. Parnell to appeal the case, otherwise he must pay the costs of the divorce proceedings or be declared bankrupt.

CITY COUNCIL—Regular session.

LODGES. Fort Wayne 116, K. of P.; Order of Red Men; Fort Wayne, 19, A. O. U. W.

R. R. Y. M. C. A. COTTAGE MEETING—At the home of B. F. Stonecifer, 48 East DeWald street.

THE cool wave that struck us last night brought out spring overcoats.

SUICIDES come in a bunch, as was illustrated by the record in this city last Sunday.

FORT WAYNE is extending her street railroad system. The Clinton street line will soon be finished.

MAYOR ZOLLINGER is doing the right thing in regard to enforcing the law against Sunday desecration.

THE Spring Fountain Park Assembly at Warsaw is offering an inviting and instructive program to those who attend its sessions.

DR. GATLING, the famous inventor, is now making a tour of the gas belt with a view of selecting a site for manufacturing artillery guns.

SOUTH BEND capitalists are turning their attention to building houses and selling them to worthy persons on the monthly installment plan.

IF Professor Campbell desires to show the people of Fort Wayne the merits of his air ship, let him select some other day than the Sabbath on which to do it.

IT is now provided by a law passed in Denmark, that all drunken persons shall be taken home in carriages at the expense of the landlord who sold them the last glass.

CRAWFORDSVILLE boys are seized of the balloon-parachute business, and cats are daily sent up, the parachute arranged so that it will detach itself from the balloon in five minutes after the latter is afloat. The cats are not taking kindly to this aeronautic mania.

AN EX-POLICEMAN, who has done ten years' duty in one of the large cities of the east, declares that he has never seen a baldheaded tramp. Baldheaded men can't sleep in the woods with their hats off because the mosquitoes bother them too much. This is the reason.

THE official report of the issue of marriages in France shows that 2,000,000 wedlocks were childless; 2,500,000 had but one child each; 2,300,000 had two children each; 1,500,000 had three children each; 1,000,000 four children; 550,000 each five; 300,000 each six; and 200,000 each seven or more children.

THE forthcoming report of the secretary of agriculture is said to be the largest edition of a government publication ever issued. Congress ordered 404,774 copies printed, and it takes a room 120 feet long by 30 wide to hold the volumes piled up 7 feet 6 inches. Verbose Uncle Jerry! He evidently intends to supply the farmers with something besides their mortgages to read this winter.

THE foreign insurance companies doing business in this state are preparing to contest the legality of the firemens' fund law, under which they are required to file statements with the county auditor and pay into the fund $1 on each $100 of the excess of premiums over losses in this state. The companies are nearly all filing their statements under protest, and are announcing to the auditor that they believe the law is unconstitutional.

JUST before his sickness, Mr. Spurgeon defended himself in his organ, the Sword and Trowel, against the imputation of having spoken unfavorably of revivals. He declares his joy in true revival work, and his hope that there may be a great deal more of it in the churches. But he discriminates between wholesome scriptural revivals and mere "stirs an excitements and unspiritual fervors, which do more harm than good." He speaks of churches he has known which "have died of spasms" and "others which lead a sickly life, alternating between hot fits and cold shivers." His sound conclusion is that "a perpetual condition of healthy life and growth is better than dashes and rushes of heated but transient zeal."

ONE important factor in the Ohio campaign is overlooked by McKinley and his supporters. This year Ohio democrats will enjoy the benefits of the new ballot law, framed after the Australian system. Under such a law it will be impossible for the owners of protected industries to terrorize their workmen as in the past, and it is believed by the democratic state committee that the party will gain not less than 5,000 votes from men in mines and mills who have heretofore been forced to vote in accordance with the wishes of their taskmasters. It is for this reason republican organs have not yet ceased to denounce the passage of the election law as opposed to the interests of the party. It may possibly be hard for the party, but the people will be the gainers.

JAPAN is now the debatable ground of religion. Not only do heathenism and Christianity strive with each other, but the sects into which Christianity is split have likewise transferred thither their rivalries. The great historic faiths are spurred to increasing effort by this rivalry of love. What protestantism is doing our readers know—its last triumph being the publication of a periodical in English, called "Missionary Tidings," and devoted to missionary interests, which is printed in Yokohama by a native Japanese company. The Roman Catholics are equally busy and successful. And we learn that the Greek church maintains there its only foreign mission. Commencing in a small way a number of years ago, the Russian missionaries gathered 6,000 Japanese convicts, and these, in 1860, petitioned the Russian government for an increase subsidy, which was granted; so that now the membership of the Greek church in Japan numbers over 20,000. All right. Let the most active and painstaking Christian denomination capture the island. Meantime, let the good work of evangelization, with its inevitable concomitants of education and social improvement, go on. The result will be a fairer Japan, whose eyes, like the faces of the saints in Murillo's pictures, will have an upward look, whose heart will be purified, and whose law will be liberty. Japan is in one of those transition periods so common in our western life. Aided by the accelerating forces of our age, may we not hope that this nation may be born in a day into the larger hope and life of the century?

A MAMMOTH VEGETABLE.

Ellison's Farm Produces a Monster Turnip Weighing Five Pounds.

The fraternity at THE SENTINEL office will not go hungry for at least a week. A turnip weighing four pounds and seven ounces and measuring two feet, lacking one inch, rests on the reportorial desk in this office, as a specimen of vegetable raised on T. E. Ellison's farm, near the city. Considering that this is early in the season for turnips of any kind, the specimen is a very remarkable one.

What is the University Extension Movement?

"The university extension movement is to provide the means of higher education for persons of all classes and of both sexes engaged in the regular occupations of life."

The movement was started in England in 1873 by the University of Cambridge. Last year about 40,000 students attended courses of lectures at about 300 centers.

The American society was organized in 1890 to promote the movement throughout the United States and Canado.

The fundamental idea throughout has been to educate the busy people. Ladies, business and professional men, clerks and teachers have been represented in lecture audiences, while some of the courses in Philadelphia have been largely attended by working people.

Already one hundred colleges and universities have signified their intention of co-operating with the society. A monthly journal, called University Extension, is published by the society. The first number is on the table at the city department of the Young Men's Christian association.

Any young men wishing information, may have it be applying to the general secretary. All should avail themselves of the privilege. There will be no cost, except a small admission fee, not over $1, and likely less. There ought to be a class of 500 organized at the Y. M. C. A. by October 1st.

Young men, hand in your names to the secretary at once.

The Huntington Democrat says: "There were about ten of the Fort Wayne bicyclists who started out for the 100 mile run yesterday morning. Several of them reached this city, and one rider, a Mr. St. Clair, made the full run from Fort Wayne to Huntington; to Columbia City and return and then to Fort Wayne, within the ten hours. Cliff Cherry started with him to Columbia City but was thrown from his wheel and had to give it up. Those who came down with St. Clair stayed around the city and took in the sights and waited until he returned from Columbia City, when they accompanied him home. There were two gentlemen named St. Clair. Alex. Lipes, Cliff Cherry and W. H. Shorey were in the party. Mr. Shorey went back on the train this morning."

W. M. Smith, of Saline City, ran three-quarters of a mile at Bloomfield to overtake a 'bus which would carry him to Elliston, and upon overtaking the vehicle he complained of heart trouble. Within a few moments he was dead. The deceased was a man of family, and aged fifty-four years.

John Boncuttter, of Kempton, who killed Fred C. Hobbs, has been committed to jail. The state claims that Boncuttter first struck Hobbs, after which Hobbs fired four shots without effect. Still later, while friends were taking Hobbs away, Boncuttter suddenly appeared in the rear and fired upon Hobbs, the bullet striking him in the back. Another shot was fired after Hobbs fell.

A. J. Kelley, of Terre Haute, has been arrested at Effingham, Ill., charged with conspiracy, growing out of the marital complications of S. G. Barbee and wife, of Effingham. Kelley is accused of conspiring with a woman named Bechtel, of Terre Haute, by which Barbee was induced to compromise an imaginary claim by payment of $3,000, for which he gave his note secured by mortgage.

Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock the boiler in the Manly Furniture company's factory at Warsaw, blew up, greatly damaging the building and severely injuring the fireman, John Hoag. Noticing that the steam was running higher than usual and necessary, and that the water was rather low, Hoag attempted to put on the pump and run down the steam. Before he could get the pump to work he felt the walls begin to tremble and made a dash for liberty, but he was too late. The explosion came, and with it the flying bricks, timbers and fragments of the boiler. Hoag received a long, ugly gash on the top of his head, and another severe cut in the back, with several minor bruises, all more or less painful. He was blown fifty feet away, and landed in the center of a grass plat insensible. The engine room was totally demolished and the main building damaged. The loss is estimated at $4,000.

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble try it. LADY BURTON.

Who Sacrificed $30,000 for Conscience's Sake.

LONDON, July 28.—Lady Burton, the widow of the late Sir Richard Burton, the illustrious traveler, eminent author and Oriental scholar, has formed the topic of conversation of late in literary circles in the English speaking world. She, with her husband, had lived in so many eastern countries. It was said that he was the master of thirty-five languages and dialects. His wonderful literal translation of the Arabian Nights was printed, but not published. It created a great sensation among scholars.

For some fourteen years before his death he collected material for the writing of a book which was called the "Scented Garden," a translation from the Arabic. Its character was such that it could only be circulated privately. The day before his death Sir Richard called Lady Burton into his room where he was working on the last half page of the Arabic manuscript. He said it would be finished the following day and that he would never write another book on the subject. "I am afraid," he said, "that it will make a great row in England, because the 'Arabian Nights' was a baby tale in comparison to this."

Some days after his death Lady Burton read the manuscript and was in torture what to do about it. In the meantime she was offered upwards of $30,000 for it. She was advised to bury it by one friend, another said, "Let a man manage it for you." Her reply was: "I can take in the world, but I cannot deceive God Almighty, who holds my husband's soul in his hands."

Ultimately she burnt it, thus for conscience's sake sacrificing $30,000, which would have purchased for her a handsome annuity, and she was left with very limited means. Lady Burton says that her late husband was the purest, the most refined and most modest man who ever lived. Lady Burton has certainly proved herself to be one of the most self-sacrificing of women.

We are convinced that we never published more reliable testimonials than those for Pastor Koenig's Nervine Tonic. This remedy deserves special recommendation, because it is given free to the poor.

Can't You Catch On.

To a known means of overcoming that obstinate disorder, constipation? Of course you can. Then why don't you? Ask those who have tried it, and they will tell that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a matchless laxative, effectual without violence—thoroughly alterative, but perfectly reliable. It invigorates, too, no less than it regulates the system, and it is chiefly to this first quality that it owes the permanency of its regulating effects, since if vigor is lacking in the region of the bowels, the stomach or the liver, healthful activity in those organs is suspended. Deobstruents and cathartics in general are simply that and nothing more; they relax the bowels merely without invigorating them, and as their laxative action is usually abrupt and violent they really tend to weaken the organs. Use the bitters, also for malaria, rheumatism, indigestion, debility and kidney trouble.

John Ambrose, of Richmond, attempted suicide by taking cantharides.

False Economy

Is practiced by many people, who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Surely infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it.

GRAND ARMY RATES.

The Cut Still Continues—Matters of a Personal and General Character Gathered at the Shops.

The Grand Army rates, which take effect the latter part of the week, are stirring to their profoundest depths the traveling propensities of the American people, says the Chicago Tribune. The Grand Army encampment has come to be regarded as the great annual moving day. Thousands and tens of thousands of people in the west take advantage of it to revisit the scenes of their childhood in the east. The date is propitious for the Kansas and Nebraska farmer, for his harvest is ended, but not so favorable for his neighbors in Dakota, who are just in the midst of their busy season. The legitimate Grand Army business will be large. All the railroads have contracted for business well up to their capacity, the Michigan Central, one of the terminal lines, having already arranged for twenty-two specials. But this Grand Army traffic proper will not constitute one-half the business that will be handled. The rates have declined to the point that is "popular." That is, they will create travel.

Innumerable citizens, who would not take the desired trip at full rates, or even half rates, will deliberate for a few days on the one-cent a mile basis, which is now in effect over a wide stretch of territory, and will then suddenly conclude to join the procession. This created business is so much additional revenue to the railroad companies, and when it approaches a general migration is very profitable also. But there is a corresponding loss. Lines which are usually called strong, and which have a heavy local business, suffer considerably, for their regular travelers, and those who are compelled to make the journey, will wait for the cheap rates, and thus deprive the railroads of the full rates, which they would otherwise get. This loss sometimes exceeds the gain from the created business. The situation is about this: The weak lines always profit by the low rates; the strong lines often suffer. But the cheap excursions get people out of the rut to a wholesale degree. The great national hegira brings new scenes before the masses, banishes discontent, polishes rusty manners, and gives torpid and emotional natures a thorough shaking up. The effect is medicinal, and the cheap rates are, therefore, a public blessing.

F. Archer, who was sick, reported for duty this morning at the Pittsburg round house.

Fireman C. Marsh, of the Pittsburg limited, has resumed his run after a two week's vacation.

Theo. W. Hood, bill clerk at the Lake Shore freight office, spent Sunday with his parents at Jackson.

G. W. Fishering, of the Fort Wayne Furniture company, will go to Pittsburg tomorrow on a business mission.

Fireman G. Bowser is again at his post on a Pittsburg shifting engine, after an absence of several days.

William White, a blacksmith in the Pittsburg shops, has recovered from a sickness and gone to work again.

Thomas Oliver, formerly an agent in Lagrange county for the Fleming Manufacturing company, is in the city.

C. Woolpert, foreman of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan shops at Wabash, spent Sunday in Fort Wayne.

Frank Kehler, an engineer in the Nickel Plate yards at Stony Island, spent Sunday with his mother in this city.

James O'Connell, foreman of the finishing room of the Fort Wayne Furniture works, went to Hartford City yesterday.

Jack Thomas, train dispatcher of the Chicago and Erie road at Huntington, was in the city over Sunday, returning home yesterday.

C. Sweeney, Fireman on the Pittsburg, has recovered from injuries received some time ago and this morning reported for duty.

James H. Fr— is at his desk in the Pittsburg store room office again, after a very pleasant visit with relatives in Delphi, his old home.

William Owens, who was sick several months, has recovered and resumed work at the Fort Wayne Furniture works. He is a cabinet maker.

John A. Houser, superintendent of the Fleming Manufacturing company, is at St. Joseph, Mo., in the interest of the firm. The agent at that point is N. P. Eckles.

Yesterday Howard Siebert, of the Plymouth branch of the electric works, accepted a position in the local institution.

Dr. J. M. Kells, of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association, is sick, though still attending to the duties of his office.

Harry McLochlin, William Smith and William Bierbaum have taken positions in the winding room of the electric light works.

Perry Harlan, operator in the Lake Erie and Western train dispatcher's office at Muncie, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

Firemen W. F. Jungles and J. Kohler, of the Pittsburg, who have been taking a vacation, returned to their work this morning.

Switch engine No. 142 will be sent to Chicago this evening to aid in hauling the immense business the Pittsburg is receiving at that Point.

M. Raun, a cabinetmaker at the Pittsburg shops, is sick. J. Lahmeyer and H. Lose, of the same department who were on the sick list, have recovered.

While Wrapping an armature yesterday afternoon at the electric light works, a wire broke and James Morris was thrown to the floor severely injuring his back.

Harry McKinley, foreman at the electric works, has returned from Plymouth, where he assisted in the resumption of work at that branch of the Fort Wayne electric light works.

Brakeman John Keith, of the Nickel Plate, was thrown down by the breaking of a brake Sunday and sustained a bad sprain of the back. He will be compelled to lay off some time.

Chas. H. Doebler, master mechanic of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan at Wabash, formerly assistant road superintendent of the Pennsylvania company in this city, spent Sunday in Fort Wayne greeting his many friends.

J. D. Frantz, for thirty years an engineer on the Erie road, died last week of bronchial troubles. Mr. Frantz was one of the founders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and had held important positions in the association.

The men in the Nickel Plate shops in this city have been given increased hours. The boiler department is working ten and the machine department fifteen hours. Much of the work of the Butler branch is now being done in this city.

Two flat cars loaded with cedar posts belonging to the Lake Erie and Western railway, were destroyed by fire near Blaine, Jay county. The cars were discovered to be on fire when near Portland and the engine was pulled wide open to get to a side track with the fired load.

Geo. Bell, the Nickel Plate brakeman who had his foot taken off at Leipsic, Ohio, the other day by the wheels of a train passing over it, is getting along nicely at the St. Joseph hospital. He was brought to this city by Dr. J. M. Dinnen, who was called to the scene of the accident.

Look out for rare sport for the traveling public soon. The country is on the eve of one of the greatest rate wars ever known. The Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan road is selling tickets to Chicago, via Benton Harbor, for $2.50, and the Lake Erie and Western, an all rail route, will undoubtedly meet the cut and go one better. We expect soon to hear of the railroads carrying passengers free.

Nels Bradley, foreman at the Fort Wayne Furniture works, while not yet an expert rider, can perform some feats with a bicycle that the best cyclists would not undertake. The other day he accomplished a double somersault from his wheel to the bottom of the heavy embankment near the Columbia street bridge. The wheel escaped injury and Mr. Bradley only sustained a few trifling bruises.

John O'Connors, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, spent last Sunday with his boys, Mike and Johnny, at Grand Rapids, and reports having a very pleasant time. The boys hired a carriage and showed their father over the city in grand style. Among other interesting points visited was the scaffold from which Prof. George N. Mallett made three successful dives into the water beneath. The distance from the top of the scaffold to the surface of the water is seventy-eight feet. The professor claims to have beaten the world's record of daring leaps. Mike O'Connors is the foreman of the Grand Rapids Democrat and John, jr., is employed as a compositor in the same office. Both are prospering.

which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla will build up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purify the blood, and assist to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

BASE BALL NOTES

Picked Up Here at Home and Abroad—Hubbard Signed.

Yesterday was a day of rest for the Northwestern league, but today the battle is again on, with the Fort Waynes at Evansville and the Terre Hautes at Grand Rapids. Sunders has been ordered to join the team at Evansville and will probably pitch today's game. Bennett, the new third baseman, was found to be no good and was released. "Doly" Hubbard has been signed, and if his work continues as it began he will be one of the strongest men in the team. We are sailing along now in third place, and the result of the games away from home will decide whether we go to the bottom or walk up to the head of the class.

The National and Association games yesterday were as follows:

National league—At Boston—Boston, 8; New York, 3. At Brooklyn—Brooklyn, 3; Philadelphia, 10. At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 10; Cincinnati, 1. At Cleveland—Cleveland, 8; Chicago, 14.

American association—At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 8; Louisville, 2. At Columbus—Columbus, 8; St. Louis, 9. At Philadelphia—Athletics, 0; Washington, 3 At Baltimore—Baltimore, 5; Boston, 3.

MAKING "DOLLARS" ON SUNDAY.

Counterfeiter Teal is Captured in an Illegal Act.

(Indianapolis News.)

The government secret service long ago learned that imprisonment never, or rarely at least, reforms counterfeiters. So it was that when William A. Teal, of this city, was released from the northern penitentiary two months ago Treasury Agent Carter set a watch over him. Teal began living with his sister, Mrs. Maud Jacoby, and her daughter, at No. 2 Hanna street. He began work in a factory, but last week the officers learned that he had been purchasing metal at a store in this city. Major Carter had reason to believe that Teal was doing his molding on Sunday, and yesterday he and Deputy Treasury Agent Crit Cox, and Deputy Marshals Conway and Moore surrounded the house, and at an opportune moment closed in on it.

Teal was caught in the act of making money. With one hand he held molds and with the other he was pouring a ladle of moulten metal. Beside him lay ten "dollars" just finished. He begged for mercy, but it could not be shown.

Mrs. Jacoby was arrested as an accomplice. Teal has been in prison for counterfeiting most of the time since he was seventeen years of age. He is now forty-two. His father was a counterfeiter and died a convict.

The preliminary examination of Teal and Mrs. Jacobs was begun before United States Commissioner Moores this forenoon. Mrs. Jacobs was released on her own recognizance. She will probably be a government witness and will not be prosecuted. Teal was held under a bond of $2,000. He was asked why he returned to counterfeiting after promising so faithfully to never engage in the business again. He thought for a minute before answering, and then said: "Well, I wanted some change along."

WHAT MAKES THE CARS GO.

How the Electric Current is Applied to Move the Cars.

Nothing in the world can be more amusing than the remarks that are heard expressed by people regarding the electric street cars, especially in regard to the manner in which the power is transmitted from the power house to the wheels of the motor car. A gentleman sitting in one of the Reed's Lake cars, remarked, as he glanced ahead at the trolley wire, "It doesn't seem as if that wire was strong enough to pull this heavy car." "It don't seem as though a current of electricity sufficient to pull this car up such a grade could be forced through so small a wire," remarked a business man. These remarks and others are convincing proofs that but few people know anything about the manner in which the power is applied to the motor cars.

In the power house of the Edison company there are dynamos for the generation of electricity. These are operated by steam engines. The electricity generated at the power house is transmitted over the trolley wire to the trolley wheel of the motor and thence through wires it is conducted to a small dynamo beneath the car and through the wheels to the rails whence it returns to the opposite pole of the magnet in the generating dynamo. This forms a complete circuit, such as must be had in the telephone and telegraph wire. The current is turned on at the power house, it passes over the trolley wire to the dynamo of the motor, the armature of which is set in motion, executing the same revolutions as the dynamo at the power house. Attached to the shaft of the dynamo is a gearing which meshes with cog-wheels on the axles of the car wheels in such a manner as to reduce the velocity of the motion of the armature. To prevent a jerk when the current is applied, the dynamo is provided with a spring that prevents a sudden start and causes the gearing of the dynamo to act gradually and smoothly on the gearing of the axle. The principle is quite simple and easily understood, but it caused electrical inventors no end of trouble to perfect it.—Grand Rapids Democrat.

COFFEE, COFFEE—Green and Roasted Java, Mocha and Rio

The Coffee market is still held firmly by the speculating combination who has controlled it the last two years, and since our last circular there has been little change in prices, yet a large decline is looked for. In consequence of large receipts of Coffee at Rio and Santos. At present we have reduced the price on Rio one cent per pound.

Best Rio Coffee, 22c. lb. Roasted Rio, 25c. lb.
Old Govt. Java, 28c. lb. Roasted Java, 33c. lb.
Roasted Mocha, 35c. lb. Simpson Coffee in 1lb Packages, 25c.
Levering's Coffee, 25c. lb.

The Tea market all grades of Teas, both Chinese and Japanese remain at former prices, but they are extremely low when the high price of Coffee is considered, and it is safe to say the high price of coffee has induced a large consumption of Tea, as the price of a pound of 20c. Tea is no more than a pound of coffee and it will go twice as far. We sell a most excellent Tea at 20c. lb, and the very best at 50c. lb. CLEMENCY OF THE GOVERNOR.

George W. King Released From a Life Sentence.

The governor yesterday pardoned Geo. W. King, sentenced in 1882 from Wells county to the northern prison for life, having been convicted of murder. King was twenty-seven years old, and had been raised in that county as a farmer boy. He became intimate with a man named Thayer, notorious for being quarrelsome, and guilty of many petty offenses. Thayer gave King the use of an old building on his premises at Ossian, for the purpose of keeping a saloon. One night Thayer was found dead near the saloon and King was arrested for the crime and convicted on purely circumstantial evidence. At the time of the trial there was much feeling in Wells county because of a shooting affray that had occurred some time before and King was given a more severe sentence on that account than he would have otherwise received. Judge Bobo, who tried the case, wrote very urgently for King's release, and the entire jury that tried him and more than two thousand citizens of Wells county joined in the request. King is one of the best looking convicts in the northern prison and looks nothing at all like a criminal. His family is well known and highly respected and its members are among the most prominent citizens of Wells county.

Governor Hovey also commuted the sentence of Curtis Painter, a seventeen-year-old boy, convicted last April in the Spencer circuit court of larceny and sent to the county jail for six months. The governor concluded that the reform school was the proper place for Painter, and the latter will therefore stay at Plainfield four years, or until he is of age. Painter and another boy escaped, a few days ago, from the Rockport jail, but were soon recaptured.

WATER MAIN EXTENSIONS.

The Trustees Will Submit the Cost of Pipe Tonight.

The waterworks trustees will tonight submit a report to the council showing that the cost of water pipes for proposed extensions will be $28 a ton for 700 tons, amounting to $16,100. This is below the cost heretofore paid. The appropriation of $35,000 set aside to make water main extensions, will be used to accomplish the best results, but it will not be sufficient to build all of the extensions petitioned for.

THE CITY'S ROAD MACHINE.

The Council Tonight Will Discuss the Merits of Various Machines.

The city council have concluded to purchase a road scraper and at the meeting tonight the merits of various machines will be discussed and the order placed with the manufacturer whose machine and terms are the best. The Fleming Manufacturing company will be on hand with a proposition to furnish one of their latest improvements, "The Fort Wayne Steel Reversible," which for ease of management, efficiency, strength and durability, the company claim, has no equal. In the purchase of a machine it looks reasonable that the council would give the home manufacturer the preference, especially since there is but little, if any difference in price, and as to merit, the conquests won by the Fleming over all competitors at numerous trials would indicate that their machines are equal, if not superior, to the best. The council will undoubtedly buy a Fort Wayne machine.

THE COURTS ARE DULL.

But Little News of an Interesting Character Picked Up by the Court Reporter in His Rounds.

The mid summer dullness in local news circles is nowhere more manifest just now than in the courts of the city. Neither the superior or the circuit court is in session, and but few cases are being commenced by the lawyers, who have plenty of time for summer vacations, if they care to take them. The justice courts are eternally in session, and this is true also of the mayor's court, both of which grind away whenever they have business of any kind to keep them going. The justice of the peace must always be "available." He is supposed to be ready for business at any hour of the day, and he knows not when a client will drop into his office to commence a new suit, or a loving couple call to have "their two lives made as one." He watches and waits, however, these July days, and but little business is done. "Nothing today," most of them answered this morning, as THE SENTINEL reporter made his rounds, but the newspaper man kept on his way hunting for news, and this is the result of his work on a dull day:

THE GRIST OF THE COURTS.

Benjamin Saunders, guardian of Ella G. McCullough, files an inventory of his ward's estate in the clerk's office.

Charges have been preferred against George J. Ortlieb, the Calhoun street saloon man, for violating the 11 o'clock law. The case was continued until Friday, at 2 p. m.

Pease, the Columbia street saloonkeeper, was fined $19.50 for disobeying the mayor's order to close at 11.

Record has been made of H. J. Ash's sub division of Fairfield's outlot No. 28. The division is near the organ factory and is divided into twenty-eight lots.

The county commissioners will make the August settlement with township trustees next week.

Col. R. P. Dehart, of Lafayette, who has appealed the Pettit wife-murder case to the supreme court, has prepared five thousand pages of type-written manuscript, covering the entire record. It will not be filed with the supreme court until some time in October.

Two ancient government land patents were filed for record with County Recorder Thompson yesterday. One was from the United States to Chas. Winter, dated November 10, 1841, and another to Daniel Dower, of Carroll county, dated August 1, 1844.

The last will and testament of Charles A. Chauvey, deceased, has been filed with the county clerk. He leaves to his wife, Amelia Frances Chauvey and her heirs forever, all his property, both real and personal, of every kind and description. Should there be need of any administration upon his estate, he names his wife as executrix of his will.

William Stoll, of Nebraska, has been arrested by United States Deputy Marshal John C. Abel for violating the internal revenue laws, by running a saloon without a government license. The defendant was given a hearing this afternoon by Commissioner Leonard, and remanded to await the action of the federal authorities.

Justice Wilkinson had two youthful criminals before him yesterday. Two boys, Charles Rothschilds and Chester Kiel, had a boyish fistic encounter which ended not as such occurrences generally do. The Rothschilds boy preferred assault and battery charges against the Kiel boy. Justice Wilkinson on looking into the case wound it up by reprimanding the pugilists and dismissing the case.

Some time ago Alexander Rogers, of 301 Hanna street, left his wife and young son to hustle for themselves. The boy got a position in a Hanna street grocery, and yesterday Rogers, sr., appeared at the store and demanded the boy's wages. Being refused, he went to the house and began abusing the wife he had deserted. His son came home and subjected the old man to a sound thrashing, for which he was fined $1 and costs by Justice Walkinson yesterday.

Constable Wise, who has possession of the Campbell air ship by virtue of an attachment issued from Justice France's court, says he proposes to test the flying qualities of the machine by making a trip to Chicago and return. He will leave here tomorrow at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and expects to reach Chicago by noon, and he will take dinner there. Returning he will leave Chicago at 5 o'clock and reach Fort Wayne at 6 o'clock. "I will make each trip in an hour," he said, "or bust the ship."

County Clerk Souder reports a dullness in the marriage license business. "There are but few applications for marriage licenses being made now," he says, "and I think I will do something to help the business along. Wonder how it would do to advertise? True, I have a sort of monopoly on the business, but maybe an advertisement would stir up the young people a little. What do you think?"

The mayor's court this morning was a blank.

The case against Fred Monroe, of New Haven, for maintaining a nuisance, will be heard before Justice France on Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Agent Read, of the Humane society, has filed an affidavit against A. Buttren, of St. Joe township, charging him with beating his wife.
